

"Healthy Kids Are Our Business"

Heather Brandon M.D. • Valeska Gonzalez M.D. • Angie Hilger M.D. • Kendra Biela, RN, PNP
Clay Cessna, D.O. • Rosie Rauber, PA-C

Lead Screen

Does your child live in or often visit a home, daycare facility or other building that was built before 1978 with ongoing repairs or remodeling?

YES NO UNKNOWN

Does your child eat or chew on non food things like paint chips or dirt?

YES NO UNKNOWN

Does your child have a family member or playmate that has or has had lead poisoning?

YES NO UNKNOWN

Is your child frequently exposed to any of the following: contamination from a parent/relative or friend with jobs or hobbies like these?

- radiator repair pottery making lead smelting welding
- house construction/repair battery manufacture/repair chemical preparation
- burning lead-painted wood making fish weights automotive repair shop/junkyard
- valve & pipe fillings brass/copper foundry
- refinishing furniture going to a firing range/reloading bullets

Sources of lead in food or remedies?

a preservation of appetite with craving for substances not fit for food, such as dirt, starch, clay, ashes, or plaster

- imported/glazed pottery (Mexican bean pot) [
- imported candy(especially from Mexico)
- remedies(greta, azarcon, Alarcon, alkohl, bali goli, coral, ghasard, liga, pay-loo-ah, rueda)
- foods canned or packaged outside the U.S nutritional pills other than vitamins